

North Toronto Gets Road Through Cemetery

Construction, Now Long Delayed, Will Go on at Once.

The construction of the road parallel to Yonge street, through Mount Pleasant Cemetery, will go on at once. This was decided yesterday after a conference between the Councils of York township and North Toronto and the General Burying Ground Trust. The cost will be $15,000, of which the town of North Toronto will pay all but $2,000. An overhead bridge will be erected over the old Belt Line Railway.

The construction of the road has been under consideration a long time, and the announcement of the agreement means, it was stated last night, the completion of a number of important real estate deals.
